

Atlanta's Attractions

Atlanta Braves Baseball / Turner Field

Home to the 2000 MLB All-Star game, Braves tickets can be ordered by phone and charged to MasterCard, Visa, Discover, or American Express. Simply call the Ticket Master Charge Line at 404-249-6400 or 1-800-326-4000

Atlanta Hawks Basketball

For tickets call (404) 249-6400 or 1-800-326-4000

Atlanta Thrashers Hockey

Ticket information can be requested through the web page or by calling (404) 584-PUCK

Atlanta Botanical Garden

Tropical, desert and endangered plants from around the world. Piedmont Avenue at The Prado, (404) 876-5859

Atlanta History Center

Explore Atlanta history from the Civil War to civil rights in award-winning exhibitions. 130 West Paces Ferry Road, (404) 814-4000

Carter Presidential Center

The Carter Center is located in a 35-acre park approximately two miles east of downtown Atlanta. Four circular interconnected pavilions house offices for the former president and first lady and most of the Center's program staff. The complex includes the nondenominational Cecil B. Day Chapel, other conference facilities, and staff offices. The Center also owns the nearby Kirbo Building and leases other office space from the City of Atlanta for The Atlanta Project and The America Project. The Jimmy Carter Library and Museum, which adjoins The Carter Center, is owned and operated by the National Archives and Records Administration of the federal government. The Center and Library are known collectively as The Carter Presidential Center. One Copenhill, Atlanta, GA 30307, (404) 420-5111

Centennial Olympic Park

The 21-acre Centennial Olympic Park was developed to serve as the world's gathering place during the Centennial Olympic Games in 1996. The park has become a civic symbol and community focal point as well as a catalyst for new development in the downtown area. 285 International Boulevard, N.W., Atlanta, Georgia 30313

CNN Center

Tour the global headquarters of Turner Broadcasting System and visit the eateries and specialty stores. One CNN Center, (404) 827-2491, Tour Information (404) 827-2300

Georgia Tech Conference Services
www.conference.gatech.edu
871 McMillan Street
Atlanta, GA 30332
phone: 404.894.2469
fax: 404.894.9620

Fernbank

150-acre environmental/education complex which includes a major museum of Natural History, a Science Center, Planetarium & Observatory, and the Fernbank Forest. 767 Clifton Road NE, (404) 378-0127

Fox Theatre

This 1929 Moorish/Egyptian/Art Deco fantasy hosts a wide range of live performances and year-round tours. 660 Peachtree Street NE, (404) 881-2100

Georgia Aquarium

The Georgia Aquarium is scheduled to open in 2005. The Georgia Aquarium will be among the largest such attractions in the world, with a 5 million gallon tank of exotic fish and aquatic wildlife. The site will include a grand meeting space large enough for a 12,000 person reception, or 1,200 guest sit-down dinner. The aquarium will also be neighbors to the new World of Coke museum, which will move from Underground Atlanta to the new site adjacent to Centennial Olympic Park and the Aquarium later in 2005.

Georgia Dome

The Georgia Dome is the largest cable-supported domed stadium in the world. Located in the heart of Atlanta, the Dome is the home venue for the National Football League's Atlanta Falcons, has been named to host Super Bowl XXXIV in 2000, and was host to the gymnastics, basketball and the finals of team handball during the 1996 Centennial Olympic Games and Super Bowl XXVIII. One Georgia Dome Drive, Atlanta, Georgia 30313

Georgia World Congress Center

The Georgia World Congress Center, located in the heart of downtown Atlanta, is one of the largest facilities in the United States and hosts a myriad of conventions, consumer/trade shows and corporate events each year. The multi-purpose facility expanded its international scope during the 1996 Centennial Olympic Games, when it hosted six sporting events and served as the International Broadcast Center. The GWCC encompasses 2.5 million square feet, earning the title of second largest convention center in the nation. 285 International Boulevard, N.W., Atlanta, Georgia 30313

High Museum of Art

This Atlanta landmark houses a superb collection of European, American, African, contemporary and decorative art as well as an array of special exhibitions. 1280 Peachtree (at 16th), Atlanta, Georgia. Take MARTA to the Arts Center Station, (404) 733-HIGH

Imagine It! The Children's Museum of Atlanta

The mission of Imagine It! The Children's Museum of Atlanta is to create environments and activities where young children experience the power of imagination and the pure

Georgia Tech Conference Services
www.conference.gatech.edu
871 McMillan Street
Atlanta, GA 30332
phone: 404.894.2469
fax: 404.894.9620

delight of learning with each other and with grown-ups... by providing a world of hands-on, memorable opportunities for children and adults of all ages and cultural backgrounds.

Hours: 10:00 am to 5:00 pm, Open seven days a week, except Thanksgiving Day and Christmas Day, 275 Olympic Centennial Park Drive NW, Atlanta, GA 30313-1827

Martin Luther King Center

The Martin Luther King, Jr. Center for Nonviolent Social Change is dedicated to carrying forward the legacy and work of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. through research, education and training in the principles, philosophy and methods of nonviolence.

Margaret Mitchell House and Visitors Center

Exhibits retell the story of her life, book and the movie and their profound impact on Atlanta and the South. Corner of 10th and Peachtree Streets, (404) 249-7012

Piedmont Park

In the heart of Midtown, Atlanta's most loved park, Piedmont Park has hosted many of the events that have helped shape Atlanta. Nearly 3,000,000 people a year visit Piedmont Park, making it one of the most heavily used parks in the southeastern United States.

SciTrek

Atlanta's hands-on Science & Technology Museum with over 150 interactive exhibits. 395 Piedmont Avenue, (404) 522-5500

Six Flags Over Georgia <www.sixflags.com>

Atlanta's home of the fastest thrill rides around, Park Phone Number 770-739-3400

Stone Mountain Park

Georgia's Stone Mountain is a masterpiece of nature that amazes millions of guests from around the world. The giant granite rock, the magnificent Confederate Memorial Carving and the surrounding 3200-acre park are results of natural and historical events. P.O. Box 778, Stone Mountain, Georgia 30086, (770) 498-5690

Underground Atlanta

Underground Atlanta is a redeveloped downtown retail, restaurant, and entertainment complex at the site of the former Underground Atlanta. Opened on June 15, 1989, Underground Atlanta covers six city blocks with a gross leasable area of 220,000 square feet, with 126 operating shops, services, and eating establishments.

Woodruff Arts Center

The Woodruff Arts Center is dedicated to excellence in the performing and visual arts. As home of the Alliance Theatre Company, Atlanta College of Art, Atlanta Symphony Orchestra, and the High Museum of Art, the Woodruff Arts Center offers its patrons a unique, multi-faceted experience of many distinctive arts institutions on a single campus. Woodruff Arts Center

Georgia Tech Conference Services
www.conference.gatech.edu
871 McMillan Street
Atlanta, GA 30332
phone: 404.894.2469
fax: 404.894.9620

(WAC) Box Office:
(404) 733-5000

The World of Coca-Cola Atlanta

The story of Coca-Cola is told through fascinating exhibits, classic radio & TV advertisements, and more. Located near Underground Atlanta at 55 Martin Luther King Jr. Drive, (404) 676-5151

White Water and American Adventures

White Water and American Adventures are located just north of Atlanta, at Exit 113 off I-75 (follow the signs off the exit). Recognized as the most scenic water theme park in the country, and one of the top five in the nation, White Water features attractions ranging from relaxing floats to high thrills...something for EVERYONE in the family! 1(800) 928-WAVE or (770) 424-WAVE. American Adventures, located right next door to White Water, is Georgia's only amusement park created especially for families with kids up to the age of 15. 250 Cobb Parkway North, Marietta 30062-3503, (770) 424-9283

Zoo Atlanta

Named one of "America's Favorite Zoos," Zoo Atlanta began a multi-million-dollar habitat redevelopment in 1985 to provide zoo animals with naturalistic environments simulating their native homes. Complete are the Ford African Rain Forest, Monkeys of Makokou, Sanaga Aviary, Masai Mara, Mzima Springs, Flamingo Plaza, Orangutans of Ketambe and the Sumatran Tiger Forest. Other current exhibits include an extensive reptile collection, bird collection, red pandas, the Publix Petting Zoo, and Willie B., one of Zoo Atlanta's most beloved and best-known animals. He is a western lowland gorilla who came to the zoo in the spring of 1961. 800 Cherokee Avenue, Historic Grant Park, (404) 624-5600